

CO Section SRM
Youth Activities Committee Winter Report
Conference Call - January 27, 2022
By Ben Berlinger, Chairman

SRM High School Youth Forum 2022 (HSYF)

The CO Section will be sponsoring three delegates to the SRM HSYF in Albuquerque. They are:

- Ana Lockard, Lone Star FFA; The Fox Ranch; A Success Story for Ecology, Wildlife, Cattle, Conservation, and Communities in Northeast Colorado
- Emma Amato, Branson FFA; Fencing of the Future
- Alex Mattorano, Hoehne FFA; High Stock Density Grazing on Native Rangeland

All three delegates were selected based on their winning scores at the State FFA Range Judging and Plant ID competition held in Seibert on October 13, 2021. The HSYF presentations will be given at the Albuquerque Convention Center on Tuesday, February 8 from 8:00 am to 4:00 pm. Please check the schedule for these presentations in the Trail Boss Dailey News and also to be posted at the entrance of the HSYF presentation room. Our membership in Albuquerque needs to support our three HSYF delegates. If you attend the meeting please plan to attend their presentations and show them our appreciation for their dedication and hard work to write their range management papers and make their presentations. Adults accompanying our delegates this year are Jess Price, Ag teacher from Hoehne; Maral Howell, Ag teacher from Branson; and Saralynn Vetter, Ag teacher from Lone Star school.

Ana Lockard (second from right) with her range judging team from Lone Star FFA Chapter. Her team place FIRST in state FFA range Judging competition held in Seibert on October 13, 2021.

Emma Amato (right) was honored by the CSSRM for high scoring individual on combined ecological site judging and plant id. Brody Doherty (left) received CSSRM honors for high scoring individual for plant identification.