

2018 AWARDS

Excellence in Rangeland Conservation – Stults Family Farm

Gregg Stults (right center) and MaryAnn Stults (right) of Stults Family Farm (center) was presented with the award at the annual fall meeting by President Dan Nosal (left), and award nominator Julie Elliott (left center). Stults Family Farm was nominated by the Colorado Section SRM for the Excellence in Rangeland Conservation award for consistently demonstrating exemplary efforts in the stewardship of the rangeland resources under their management.

Trail Boss – Julie Elliott

Outstanding Young Professional – Hailey Wilmer

Outstanding Publication or Contribution – Crystal Tipton, Troy Ocheltree, Kevin Mueller, Phil Turk, and Maria Fernandez-Gimenez

Award was presented to Crystal Tipton, Troy Ocheltree, Kevin Mueller, Phil Turk, and Maria Fernandez-Gimenez of Colorado State University for the article "Revision of a state-and-transition model to include descriptions of state functional attributes" published in Ecosphere in May 2018. Pictured: Paul Meiman (center) accepting the award on behalf of Colorado State University.

Passing the Presidency

Dan Nosal by Clare Hydock (incoming President)

Appreciation Awards

Dixie Crowe (right)

Josh Saunders (right)

Andrea Leininger (right)

Josh Tashiro (right)

Scholarship Recipients

Cody (right)

Lee (right)

Sarah LeVane (right)